About Danske Bank

Danske Bank operates in the whole of Scandinavia: in Norway it's known as Fokus Bank and in Sweden under a variety of brand names, including Östgöta Enskilda Bank.

A subsidiary in Luxembourg specialises in private banking services, and one in St. Petersburg serves the Bank's corporate customers.

Handelsbanken, Provinsbanken and Den Danske Landmandsbank were some of the first banks in Denmark. When they merged in 1990, they operated under the name Den Danske Bank, now Danske Bank.
