About Access Bank

Access Bank, founded in 1989, is a Nigerian commercial bank, which main business activities are organised along four business segments: corporate and investment banking, commercial banking, business banking and personal and private banking. The bank has several subsidiaries and branches throughout Africa as well as a few branches located in the United Kingdom. Access Bank was the first Nigerian bank to adopt the Equator Principles, in June 2009. BankTrack profiled this bank as part of its Tracking the Equator Principles campaign.

Equator Principles

Implementation and reporting

The Equator Principles require that adopting banks publicly report on the implementation of the principles. You can find the reporting requirements for EPFIs here.

Access Bank is reporting on the implementation here.

Contact and complaints

The Equator Principles currently lack a formal complaints mechanism. Should you have any concerns or complaints about how the Equator Principles are being applied in a specific project in which Access Bank is also involved, please get in touch with our Equator Principles team.
