Ownership	listed on Euronext Dublin & London Stock Exchange AIB Group plc is owned by the State of Ireland which, nonetheless, since the start of 2022 has begun to gradually sell part of its shareholding. Up to June 2022, the State of Ireland owns 63.5% of AIB Group plc's ordinary shares.

Allied Irish Banks (AIB) was incorporated in Ireland in September 1966 as a result of the merger of three long established banks: the Munster and Leinster Bank (established 1885), the Provincial Bank of Ireland (established 1825) and the Royal Bank of Ireland (established 1836). AIB Group is one of Ireland's largest banks and its activities are organised mainly around two sectors: a) commercial banking: sales of standard and specialized banking products and services (leasing, life insurance, management of retirement savings, real estate lending, etc.) and b) financing, investment, and market banking.
