About Bank SinoPac

Bank SinoPac is a Taiwan-based banking holding company which operates through 18 divisions and 129 branches in Taiwan. The bank was founded by Samuel Yin and Paul Lo in 1992 as Taiwan liberalized its banking regulations. Bank SinoPac acquired a securities business from the Hong family of local fame in early 2000s. In late 2005, the bank merged with the International Bank of Taipei (IBT). Besides in Taiwan, Bank SinoPac has branches and operations in the United States and major Asian cities.
