About BayernLB

The Bayerische Landesbank is a German publicly regulated bank, founded in 1972. It is one of the eight Landesbanken. As a commercial bank, BayernLB offers financial services in private, industrial, investment and foreign business. As a state and municipal bank, BayernLB is responsible for credit and financial counsel for the state of Bavaria and its municipalities and districts. Through its subsidiaries, the bank is involved in a variety of other business areas: the Bayerische Landesbodenkreditanstalt is an organ of state housing policy, while the LBS Bayern is a public building society (Bausparkasse). Through its full ownership of the Deutsche Kreditbank, based in Berlin, BayernLB is also involved in retail banking.
