About Kasikornbank

Kasikornbank is Thailand's fourth largest bank by assets. The bank was established in 1945 by Choti Lamsam as a small bank in Bangkok and went public in 1976. Expansion was backed by a strong customer base of farmers. It has the largest portfolio of loans to small and midsize enterprises among the country's four big banks. In 2003, it changed its former English name Thai Farmers Bank to the current name. Kasikornbank has over 1,000 branches nationwide and some overseas branches mainly in China.
