Sicredi

Delimited and Excluded Activities List

Source: Internal Management of Social, Environmental and Climate Risks Normative
Version: 12/17/2024

In addition to the Social, Environmental and Climate Risk Management Policy and, in order to comply with CMN Resolution No. 4.945, of September 15, 2021, we disclose the economic sectors and practices subject to delimitations and exclusions in our operations.

1. Delimitation

Due to the greater social, environmental and climate impact, the special criteria established for the System's credit portfolio must be observed, delimiting credit concessions for the activities listed below.

- Production or commercialization of armaments and ammunition or components thereof;
- Production or commercialization of alcoholic beverages, with the exception of wine and beer, as a significant part of revenue;
- Production or commercialization of tobacco;
- Production or commercialization of radioactive materials (except for medical/hospital application);
- Production or trade of non-bonded asbestos fibers, with the exception of the purchase and use of bonded asbestos cement sheets, where the asbestos content is less than 20%;
- Extraction, transport or commercialization of native wood;
- Gambling, casinos and equivalent activities;
- Practices that may be related to misdemeanors;
- Predatory maritime fishing practices, with the use of nets over 2.5km in length;
- Commercial logging operations for use in primary tropical rainforest;
- Production or trade of timber or other forest products other than sustainably managed forests;
- Extraction/support activities for the extraction of minerals, including coal extraction;
- Extraction/support activities for natural extraction, such as Oil and Natural Gas.

2. Exclusions

The operation and activities linked to the practices listed below are considered prohibited.

- Activities of a criminal nature, especially those linked to drug trafficking, terrorism, organized crime, or human trafficking;
- Production or trade of any product or activity considered illegal under the laws or regulations of the host country or international conventions and agreements, or subject to international prohibitions;
- Unauthorized activities involving endangered species of fauna and flora;
- Production or marketing of polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) or ascarel;
- Work in conditions analogous to slavery;
- Exploitation of child labor;
- Foreign Currency Traders without official authorization;
- Unauthorized credit agents;
- Persons used by third parties for business or banking negotiations ("straw-man");
- Financing of projects for Oil and Gas extraction by unconventional methods (tar sands and oil extraction in the Arctic);
- Establishments of sexual exploitation and agents;
- Production, commercialization and/or use of prohibited pesticides;
- Discrimination based on race, gender, ethnicity, nationality, religion, belief and disability;
- Characterization of moral or sexual harassment;
- Failure to comply with the legislation applicable to people with special needs;
- Foreign politicians residing in the country (exiles);
- Corruption/dishonesty of the company, legal representatives and controllers;
- Associates involved in attempted scam/fraud against the Institution;
- Improvement of property/area/activity embargoed by IBAMA/ICMBio and/or state environmental agencies, except for the situations provided for in applicable regulations and products intended for the recovery of the damage
- Processing of Undesignated Public Forests (Type B), Conservation Units, as well as Indigenous and Quilombola Lands, according to the rules of the applicable regulation.

Any queries regarding the content of this document, contact by email risco_socioambiental@sicredi.com.br.