Which banks have ruled out finance for the JSW Utkal Steel and Coal Project?

Last updated: April 15th 2025

JSW Steel wants to build a massive and expensive steel and coal-fired power plant, which it can't do alone. JSW Utkal Steel is seeking a project loan of USD 4 billion from commercial banks to begin the project.

We've drawn up a list of the top recent financiers of JSW Steel that are likely to be approached to provide project finance. On February 20th 2025, BankTrack wrote to each of these banks urging them to rule out supporting JSW Utkal in any way publicly. This table is a summary of where each bank current

| Bank                                      | Country           | Responded    | Ruled out finance? | Rationale  |
|---|-------------------|--------------|--------------------|--|
| ANZ                                       | Australia         | $\checkmark$ | Not yet            | The bank responded stating that "ANZ does not respond to questions about the specifics of customer relationships or transactions", but would "continue to monitor the issue".              |
| Barclays                                  | UnitedKingdom | $\checkmark$ | Not yet            | The banks responded, stating: "We cannot comment on individual clients, entities or projects for confidentialityreasons."  |
| BNP Paribas                        | France            | $\checkmark$ | Not yet            | The bank confirmed that they had not been approached for finance. The assure us their ESG risk management analysis and policies would apply.   |
| Deutsche Bank                             | Germany           | $\checkmark$ | Not yet            | The bank responded, stating that they "cannot comment on any existing or potential client relationships."  |
| Groupe BPCE                               | France            | $\checkmark$ | Not yet            | The bank responded, stating: "Due to legal considerations and potential confidentiality obligations, we are unable to comment on our involvement or non-involvement in specific projects." |
| HSBC                                      | UnitedKingdom | $\checkmark$ | Not yet            | The bank responded, stating: "Our policy is not to comment on speculative financing activity."   |
| ING                                       | Netherlands       | $\checkmark$ | Not yet            | The bank's response neither acknowledges its link to the impact, nor addresses the issues raised.  |
| Mizuho                                    | Japan             | $\checkmark$ | Not yet            | The bank responed, stating: ""unfortunately, we cannot make responses on past, existing, and possible future transactions with individual case due to the confidential obligation."        |
| MUFG MitsubishiUFJ FinancialGroup | Japan             | $\checkmark$ | Not yet            | The bank responded, stating: "due to confidentiality concerns, we would like to refrain from commenting on individual transactions."   |
| Société Generale                          | France            | $\checkmark$ | Not yet            | The bank responded, stating that "its rule of conduct is not to provide information about specific companies oroperations, whether or not it accompanies them."                        |
| StandardChartered                     | UnitedKingdom | $\checkmark$ | Not yet            | The bank responded, stating: "Due to client confidentiality, we do not comment on details of specific relationships."  |

| Sumitomo MitsuiBankingCorporation(SMBC) | Japan                   | ~            | Not yet | The bank responded, but chose to "refrain from commenting on the individual project."  |
|---|-------------------------|--------------|---------|--|
| UBS   | Switzerland             | $\checkmark$ | Not yet | The bank responded, stating that "due to banking confidentiality we cannot and do not comment on any potential clients or transactions." |
| Axis Bank   | India                   | ×            | Not yet | We are still awaiting a response from this bank.   |
| BMO FinancialGroup                              | Canada                  | ×            | Not yet | We are still awaiting a response from this bank.   |
| Citi  | United States           | ×            | Not yet | We are still awaiting a response from this bank.   |
| CTBC Bank   | China                   | X            | Not yet | We are still awaiting a response from this bank.   |
| DBS   | Singapore               | ×            | Not yet | We are still awaiting a response from this bank.   |
| First Abu DhabiBank                             | United ArabEmirates | ×            | Not yet | We are still awaiting a response from this bank.   |
| JPMorgan Chase                                      | United States           | X            | Not yet | We are still awaiting a response from this bank.   |
| Mashreq Bank  | United ArabEmirates | ×            | Not yet | We are still awaiting a response from this bank.   |
| State Bank ofIndia                              | India                   | ×            | Not yet | We are still awaiting a response from this bank.   |

Updates:

• This document was updated on April 15th 2025 to reflect a response received from ANZ on April 11th 2025.